Item 1: Call To Order

The QRLTAC was called to order at 7:03 pm.

Item 2: Guests and New Members

Ashley Frament (Guest / Graphics Designer)

Item 3: Approve & Accept Minutes from May 2, 2024

Motion: Larry Kellogg; Seconded: Joellen Nellums; Motion: Passed

Item 4: Co-Chairs Announcements

Cathy gave out a series of awards to each committee member, the certificates themselves were designed & printed by Sally Tremaine.

Cathy mentioned there is another round of DEEP trail funds, there is money in the State of Connecticut budget, possible available this November. New trails, improvements to existing trails, expansions, etc.

Several new structures were discussed - pavilion, kiosk, etc.

Larry Kellogg suggested some anti-graffiti programs to incorporate artwork in various areas. He also mentioned the stone dust project and various aspects of that program.

Mary talked about the need for signs near the labyrinth gardens, as Rosemary's work was very sadly wrecked. Cathy will seek reimbursement from the town for the cost of the plantings.

Public hearing for the Fireworks Island bridge permits over the raceway, July or September.

Ashley Frament showed a draft of the public sign / map, and it is in great shape. Colors, graphics, logos, legend, and everything is noticeably clear. Public Works will manage fossil resin plaque and installation, they will check the support posts as needed.
